

The Wichita Eagle.

WICHITA, FRIDAY, JULY 12, 1922.
CITY AND COUNTY NEWS.

The grading of Main street is progressing slowly.

The heat for the past week has been very intense.

This valley was again flooded with rain on night before last.

Green corn made its first appearance in our market on the 4th of July.

Twenty-five thousand cattle have been sold for shipment here up to date.

Abdich's dance house in West Wichita is being moved to the bank of the river.

Geo. Gaston, of Kansas City, is trying to work up a building association in Wichita.

A solid dove got away with a bridge driver and his team the other day. It is now threatening to resign.

Copious rains continue to fall in this valley. All crops are now well along, and the yield will be enormous.

During the excursion to Atchison the Rev. Mr. Newley's house was entered and some things of value taken therefrom.

It is hinted that George Salisbury, esq., one of Wichita's prominent firms of the law, has gone over to the liberal movement.

Wednesday, at 1 o'clock, the thermometer stood at 90 in the shade on the sidewalk and at 90 on the north side of the building.

Joseph McCoy, who has been north looking after the cattle trade and Wichita's interest therein, returned home on Wednesday.

Sharpneck & Litzberg, of El Paso, have opened a land and real estate agency at that point. These gentlemen are reliable, and no doubt will do a good business.

W. P. Rouse returned home yesterday from a trip down to Bloomington, Ill. He is looking well and feeling well, but as to his illness is going in November he is not sure.

By the proceedings of the board of county commissioners it will be seen that our county treasurer, S. C. Johnson, has made his annual settlement and the books are all balanced.

The first load of clover hay we have seen in this county passed our office last week. It was harvested by C. O. Lee on his farm three miles northeast of here, on Chisholm creek.

Col. E. C. Manning, of Winfield, was in town this week on business connected with the U. S. land office. He reports Winfield as one of the most thrifty and desirable towns in the Southwest.

The Methodist will occupy the school house the entire day next Sabbath, Mr. Newley preaching morning and evening. Hereafter the Methodists and Episcopalians will alternate each Sabbath.

A picnic and other celebrating demonstrations were had at the school house, in El Paso, on the 4th, which are represented as having been an enjoyable occasion, and in every particular a perfect success.

John A. McIlvane, deputy clerk of the district court, started on Tuesday for his old home in Washington, Pennsylvania. John will be missed by many in Wichita who wish him a happy and successful trip.

Mr. Pipher, who has the government contract for furnishing goods for Ft. Sill, the Cheyenne and Wichita agencies, was here during the week seeing to the loading of a big train, which starts back in a day or two.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to the state fair, which opens on the 10th of September at Topeka. A great effort is being made to insure a grand success of the annual agricultural and horticultural exhibition for 1922.

See proceedings of the board of county commissioners in another column. Sedgewick county has a set of solid, sensible and experienced men in this responsible position, in whose hands the interests of the county will not likely suffer.

The Police Gazette contains a heartrending illustration of the baby-wagon accident given by the EAGLE a few weeks since. The street is not exactly recognizable, neither is the face of the innocent babe, but the picture of the mules is very natural.

A Texas man was accidentally shot through the arm, on Main street, last Tuesday afternoon. He and a companion were carrying a revolver, and in scuffling for its return, in sport, the weapon was accidentally discharged. It is providential that it did not result in more serious affliction.

The horses attached to Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express wagon took fright at the engine, on last Tuesday night, and treated the express wagon to a lively ride. The team ran some two miles above town before they stopped. No damage was done to anything outside of the driver's temper.

Strikes are all the rage and as popular as Dolly Vardens were a month since. The latest movement in Wichita is a strike among the barbers. They have struck for twenty-five cents a shave. It is amusing, as well as instructive, the way the fellows are strapping old neglected rusty razors.

Major Dodge, at Ft. Dodge, has the thanks of our citizens for kindly lending his aid, together with a detail of a lieutenant and twenty men, in assisting Capt. Barnes in making an arrest of parties who had taken horses and cattle from this vicinity last spring. The property was all recovered, or an equivalent.

On Saturday last, while a company of three or four hundred Kaw Indians were encamped in the vicinity of Newton, on their return from a buffalo hunt, some of their number became intoxicated, and used such language and committed such offenses in regard to Indian fashion. One of them was killed and scalped, and another was so badly wounded that he has since died.

Mr. McCoy has returned from a tour into Missouri, Iowa and Northeastern Kansas. He states that farmers are in great grief over the unusually fair promise of crops. He informs us that they were glad to be informed where stock cattle could be bought at such bargains as are offered at Wichita. Many of them will be here so soon as harvest is over, to supply their farms with stock.

The Rev. J. P. Harsen, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this place, preached in Newton last Sabbath, at which time the preliminary steps in the organization of a church were taken. A young man footed it all the way down on the 4th of July from Newton to Wichita, a distance of twenty-seven miles, to secure the service and attendance of Mr. Harsen. Such zeal is truly commendable, and we sincerely hope that the vine planted may flourish and increase.

We have an exhibition in our office specimens of winter rye, forty-six stalks and heads of which were produced from one kernel, besides a sheaf of the heaviest and finest looking grain which we have seen in Kansas. The wheat was grown on the upland. These were produced on the farm of Martin E. Clark, township 25, section 34, range 1 east, Mr. Clark is an industrious and good farmer, as his first crop testifies, and in a few years his farm, from the interest he takes in it, will be one hundred and sixty acres of garden.

Gov. C. V. Eskridge was in Wichita during the week. Mr. E. is one of the prominent candidates for governor. John M. Price, of Atchison, is the only candidate now out that will be likely to give Eskridge any trouble. Eskridge is a man of acknowledged ability, the state over, has had much experience as a legislator and lieutenant governor, and his interests are thoroughly identified with Southwestern Kansas. We are sorry that we were not at home when he called, as it would have been a satisfaction to have heard from his own lips how the battle was progressing.

One of the largest and most important real estate transactions that has taken place this spring in Wichita occurred this week. Hon. John H. McMurphy, of Georgetown, Colorado, a gentleman of wide experience and an owner of heavy interests in the mining districts, which are paying him an income of $30,000 per month, and, who, having a year since, incidentally invested four or five thousand dollars in lots in this place, which increased so rapidly in value as to attract his attention, came back last week, bringing with him a young and accomplished wife from Lancaster, Penna. After spending three or four days in riding over the country with Mr. Steele, who has been acting as his agent, he selected and bought two valuable sections of land near Wichita, paying therefor four thousand dollars, and quite a number of valuable lots from Wm. Griffith, for which he paid nineteen thousand dollars, and also, some lots from J. N. McCulloch, for two thousand three hundred dollars. The largest deal required nineteen dollars in stamps. Judge McMurphy declares that he will make Wichita his home, not only because he ever saw suits him half so well, and that our country is the finest that he ever shone upon. Wichita is exceedingly favorable in securing the interests of a man of the acknowledged financial ability of Judge McMurphy, for the more men of wealth that we induce to come among us, the greater and more prosperous will be our growth as a city. The Judge left on Wednesday for Colorado, where he will dispose of some of his property, when he will return.

From the Lancaster Daily Intelligencer, which contains nearly a column account of Mr. McMurphy's wedding, we clip the following extract. The bride is a niece of Secretary Robeson, of Grant's cabinet, and the bridegroom is a nephew of the late President.

"A magnificent wedding ceremony in the first of our society brought together a couple of fashionable and elegantly attired people at St. James' Episcopal church, in this city, on last evening, at 8 o'clock p. m. The bride, Miss Anna McMurphy, the eldest daughter of D. G. McMurphy, esq., one of our leading and most eminent lawyers, and the bridegroom, John H. McMurphy, a young gentleman from Colorado, whom Grace Greenwood, in one of her pleasing letters last summer from that territory, eulogized for his wisdom in his elevated means of securing political preferment.

The reception took place at the residence of Mr. Robeson, on East King street, at 9 o'clock p. m. We understand that the bride and groom were surrounded by a large number of invitations were issued. The presents were numerous and costly, reaching many thousands of dollars in amount. Music added to the brilliancy of the occasion. Mrs. Secretary Robeson, cousin of the bride, and an acknowledged leader of Washington society, was next to the bride. The good graces of the bride and by her tact and overflowing kindness made the evening most truly enjoyable. The reception reflected credit upon all parties, the caterer being Augustus, of Philadelphia. The dancing was inaugurated by the bride and the secretary of the city, Mr. McCulloch, and Judge McMurphy, who were leading couples in the quadrille."

Several car loads of timber for the Oxford bridge came down the road this week. Mr. Hobson, the builder of the bridge, is also building the bridge at Oxford. These bridges are becoming very popular, and deservedly so, we think. They are purely a truss bridge, but of simple structure and airy appearance, so much so that one is apt to think them frail. But not so. The beams are almost wholly upon the ends of the timbers. The bridge at this place, for instance, is made up of nine hundred feet spans. A little over a week since one hundred and seventy beef cattle crossed the bridge at once, and the cattle were very much frightened, and several times crowded up to a space not occupying more than one-third of a span. Some anxiety was felt for the result of so great a test, and several gentlemen, including ourselves, were there to note the effects of the strain. The aggregate weight of the cattle was something over eighty-five tons, or about two tons to the lineal foot. The resistance of pressure was strong enough to have held up a locomotive and train of cars, yet, outside of some spring in the floor supports, this immense weight appeared to have no effect upon the structure whatever. The Oxford bridge is to be $24,000, and if it proves half so profitable and convenient as ours, they will never regret the outlay. The builder of these splendid yet cheap bridges, Mr. Hobson, resides here in Wichita, is a large property owner here, and this will be his true home. We hope to see these bridges spanning every stream in Southwestern Kansas, as we consider them the best, as we know them to be the cheapest, bridge built.

The style and intelligence of the people who are settling up the homesteads and building up the frontier towns of Southwestern Kansas are often a subject of remark by those just in from the east on tours of pleasure or business. It is no uncommon thing to see in Wichita, in lumber wagons, as neatly and fashionably attired ladies, as intelligent men and women, as can be pointed out in the streets of more pretentious cities east. The great majority of those living on homesteads in this section of the state are people of refinement and taste—splendid people, who will make this valley a paradise ere many years. To give an idea of this class we put in print a letter received by the New York State this week, which explains itself. We give it verbatim et literatim, except the name, which was not furnished.

NEAR WINFIELD, Kan., July 5, 1922.
Proprietor New York State, Wichita, Kan.:
Sir: I bought a bill of goods amounting to near $25 at your place yesterday (the 4th) in the forenoon, and amongst other things I bought a pair of Indian head shirts, of fifteen cents per yard, which, on arriving at home, I found had been put up with the rest of my purchases. It was waited on by a tall, slim, young man with a black hair, and a pair of eyes that were twenty-five years, fleshy and good looking, but had not been got up in much style that morning, as I had ridden to town in a freight wagon. I paid for the things, and the clerk promised to put the bill in with the goods, but neglected it. Please send the missing article and bill with the balance of this and yours.

A WORD WITH OUR PATRONS.—The subscription list of the EAGLE has steadily increased from the first issue, and is still growing at a gratifying rate. We are now having a superior quality of paper manufactured to order, the first invoice of which arrived this week, and of which this issue is a specimen. Every dollar made over and above expenses will be expended in improving the EAGLE until it shall be second to no paper in the state. As all our energies will be devoted to the up-building of our prosperous little city and the building of a beautiful country, we ask the hearty support and good-will of every business man and property-holder of Wichita, and the co-operation of every subscriber in the valley. When through reading your paper hand it to a neighbor and ask him to drop in his mite, with the assurance that he will get his money's worth many fold. When you hear of a good time, or when something takes place on your farm or around your home worthy of note, do not be backward in dropping us a line. We will take care of all poor spelling and bad grammar. Any item of farm, growing crops or fine stock will interest a brother farmer. We want the EAGLE to become a welcome visitor to every home and fire-side for fifty miles around, for not till then will our ambition be satisfied. Friends, help us, and we will do our best to help you.

The event every Saturday afternoon in Wichita is a horse race. The track is just north of, and in plain view of the town. Last Saturday the race was between a Texas horse and a Wichita mare. The mare won the race, and it is said over a thousand dollars changed hands. It was estimated that over one thousand men were present, besides some five or six carriage loads of solid doves. So great was the rush that Main street for an hour or so seemed almost deserted.

The U. S. land office at Wichita is transacting an immense amount of business. Judge Alton informs us that the people can have no idea of the rapidity with which this country is settling up. There are from forty to fifty filings per day on homesteads, besides pre-emption. In addition to this there is now an average of $400 per day received on pre-emption, or about twenty quarter sections per day.

Owing to lack of time, we were unable to complete our list of buildings erected here during the month of June. We have twenty-six so far, and will furnish a full report next week, with the contractors' names.

We heard yesterday that something like a thousand Ojage Indians were in camp some ten miles below Oxford. It is suspected that these Ojage have been committing depredations and stealing cattle in the name of the Kiowas. Within the past ten days some five hundred head of cattle have been stolen from herds being driven through the territory. We would like to inquire what that old friend, Enock Hoag, is doing about these times. If he can't take better care of his wards he had better resign his place and join the liberal movement. Already the proposition to raise three or four hundred men and go down and clean out these red robbers has been discussed, and if tender-hearted Hoag don't want his pets hurt he had better come down and look after them immediately. The settlers of this country cannot afford to have much trouble with the Indians.

Capt. Barnes came down from Raymond yesterday. He says it is a dry town in every thing except whisky. There are twenty-one houses in the town, eleven of which are saloons. He says immediately around Raymond the grass is parched for several miles, but that this side of and beyond the valley for a hundred miles the country is in a flourishing condition. Not a hoof has been shipped from Raymond, the cattle guards not being even finished, the blowing of Col. S. N. Wood to the contrary notwithstanding.

One of the oldest and most respected citizens of Wichita—indeed, one of the proprietors of the place—E. P. Waterman, left Tuesday morning for an extended trip through Arizona and New Mexico. He was accompanied by his two sons, "Vet" and "Bony," who are young men, and a Mr. Brown. They were provided with a splendid team and complete outfit and will be gone many months. Mr. Waterman is father-in-law to Hon. A. A. Moore. We wish them a successful trip.

Friend Dunsen, of Clear Water, spent the 4th in the Queen City. Mr. D. is doing a driving trade, and he informs us that the development of the valley of the Neuse, a wonderful. Clear Water is a new town at the crossing of the above river where the cattle trail crosses it. The location of the town renders its future growth and permanency a certainty. We know of no better point for investment than the new town of Clear Water, on the Neuse.

The Good Templars will hold a literary social at the school house this (Friday) evening. It is a fact that in Wichita there is a great dearth of those temperate, social and refining entertainments so necessary and essential to a town so thickly set with houses for the young as this. It is the duty of every good citizen to lend a sustaining hand. A. A. Gard, Walter Dubois and J. Roseberry are a committee on invitation, who, in not overlooking this office, will please accept our thanks.

We are in receipt of the first number of the Hutehinson News. The News is a beautiful, graphically, and brim full of sensible talk. Every original article in the first number is of practical interest and news, and we waded into it right and left with our scissors. Like the EAGLE, the News proposes to ignore empty effusions and devote its energies to the interests of this great valley and its people.

The Keystone Restaurant, No. 31 Main street, is doing up eatables that will satisfy almost any epicurean. The gentlemanly proprietors, Messrs. Reese & Prang, are accommodating, smiling and clever, and, with alacrity to their customers. You do not have to wait long for a tip-top, warm meal, set up in clean dishes, and plenty of it. Remember, ye hungry, No. 31 Main street.

On Sunday last a Presbyterian church was organized at Newton. Mr. F. L. Fatts was ordained and installed ruling elder, and Messrs. Johnson, D. L. Payne and Gies, many of the appointed trustees. The town company have agreed to donate four lots for a church and parsonage. A subscription paper is now in the hands of the trustees for the purpose of erecting a house of worship.

Hon. Thomas Murphy, ex-superintendent of Indian affairs, spent the day in Wichita yesterday. He thinks we have the finest valley and the liveliest town yet discovered. Mr. Murphy says immediate and prompt steps must be taken to get the Indians back on their reservations or we will have trouble this summer and fall.

Buildings are being put up as rapidly now as at any time during the spring. Next week an article will be published, which is now in preparation, giving in detail each building under contract, its dimensions, etc.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

McClure & Co., lumber dealers, are at Wichita with a stock of lumber, not the biggest stock in America, but a stock sufficient for all demands. W. P. McClure was a partner in the firm of John Wayne & Co., at Topeka, Burlington and Emporia until two years ago—since that time on the L. & G. R. R. at New Chicago, Thayer and Independence, on the M., K. & T. R. R. at Chetopa. Our shipments last year on those roads were over 500 car loads of lumber. We do not claim to buy and sell cheaper than any one, but from our long experience in buying and handling lumber we know something about it. We are satisfied to let Chicago make our grades, and if we cannot sell standard grades we will get out and quit the trade. Office and yards at Wichita, on Douglas avenue, and on the river, between the bridge and the Avenue Hotel; at Independence on railroad track, and down town opposite U. S. land office, at Thayer west of railroad track.

"HOW TO GO EAST."—By the Kansas City, St. Joseph and Burlington route. Though last not least, it is an adage as true as it is old, and its truth is again exemplified by the completion of the new line to the east via Creston and Burlington, which, though the last, will be called the best route in the west.

The line consists of the Kansas City, Saint Joseph and Council Bluffs railroad, with two daily trains from Kansas City, through Atchison, Leavenworth and St. Joseph, to the Missouri state line, thence connecting with the Burlington route, which leads direct to Chicago, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Logansport and Columbus—through cars are being run to all these points.

This line is well built, thoroughly equipped with every modern improvement, including Pullman's sleeping and dining cars, and nowhere else can the passenger so comfortably depend on a speedy, safe and comfortable journey.

The Burlington route has admirably answered the query, "How to go East," by the publication of an interesting and truthful document containing a valuable and correct map, which can be obtained free of charge by addressing General Passenger Agent B. & M. R. R. R., Burlington, Iowa.

Upon your arrival at Wichita stop at the Southern Hotel. Best beds, and sets the best table in the city. $2 per day. Single meals 30 cents, lodging 50 cents.
